up at this meeting.

BASEBALL

A large crowd gathered at Gooseberry Lake last Sunday to witness the first league game of baseball between Monitor & Consort. The game was a loose one in the first few innings and both teams scored a number of runs on that account, the runs were about even most of the time however and it was an interesting game all the way through, Monitor winning with a 12-9 score.

The score card record of the game was as follows:

This district was visited by a terrible sand and dust storm last Thursday evening, followed by rain. The storm could be seen approaching from the southwest, a black mountain of dust, etc., obscuring the hills several minutes before the storm struck here. One feature of the storm was its short duration, only about twenty minutes, but that was plenty long enough for those who happened to be out in it. Everything movable was carried away, and the fence surrounding the skating rink was practically demolished. Shortly after the storm had passed over a heavy shower of rain visited the district.

Mrs. Smith and daughter, of Hardisty are visiting at the home of E.W. and Mrs. Connah for a few days. After leaving here they will move to Lethbridge.

Sir Harry Lauder Refers To Intense Loyalty He Found In Canada

Sir Harry Lauder was the principal guest of the Rotary Club at luncheon at the Hotel Cecil. About 400 Rotarians, many of whom were from the provinces and from abroad, were present to welcome the Scottish comedian after his tour of 22 weeks in America and Canada.

Mr. R. S. A. Housden, who presided, said that Sir Harry was one of the leading exponents of the doctrine of unselfishness—of service to the community—that went by the name of Rotary, which had now entered 30 countries, and had 100,000 members. Rotary had proved its way into every profession, trade and calling; it was international and not deterred by boundary or language. (Cheers.)

Sir Harry Lauder, who wore a kilt, was received with loud cheers, and, after drinking the health of the company, he sang a song, "Once every week, every week in the year," the refrain of which was "Having a smoke, cracking a joke with your pals in the Rotary." When the laughter and applause had subsided, Sir Harry Lauder said that they wanted the Rotary movement to spread its tentacles in every direction; they were out for friendship and not battleships. (Laughter.) In Canada there was a loyalty that was wonderful, considering the distance from these shores and the proximity of the great Republic of America, where there was a reciprocity of ideas and a similarity of customs in national life. Yet between the United States and Canada there was a comradeship—a true comradeship—that constituted a symbol of friendship that was hard to beat. Who was there who did not believe that our Empire and the United States, standing together in confidence and regard could carry the world with them in the realization of its noblest dreams? (Cheers.)

The appointment of Lord Byng of Vimy as Governor-General of Canada had been marked by much success. His appointment was an experiment that was fraught with great danger, for he was a soldier, pure and simple, straight from the battlefield, who now filled that high post. The war reaction was felt in Canada just as elsewhere; Lord Byng had proved himself a man of more than ordinary agreeableness and power, and Canada was showing her appreciation of him. (Cheers.)

When he was in America he had the good fortune to meet informally, and very intimately, President Harding; and he formed a very high opinion of him as a sincere and sagacious gentleman. His countrymen had unbounded confidence in his courage and his capacity. He would very much like to see President Harding and Mr. Lloyd George on the golf course. (Laughter.) He would make bold to say, after the match was over, that the peace of the world would be solved. (Laughter.) President Harding was a great, big, simple, kindly Christian man, and that was what we were wanting today. (Cheers.) The name and fame of the work of Lloyd George in the United States and Canada was in such grateful esteem that he believed it amounted to hero worship. (Cheers.)

Sir Harry Lauder concluded by singing his song, "Singing is a thing to make you cheery." In one of the verses he introduced the Prince of Wales, and on finishing he caused much laughter by turning to Wing-Commander Louis Greig and remarking audibly, "Don't ye be gaun and tellin' the Duke of York."

Mr. G. N. Barnes, M.P., thanking Sir Harry Lauder, spoke of him as being even more than a national institution—he was an international figure.—The London Times.

Encouraging Settlers With Capital
Many inquiries are being received by the Publicity Commissioner of the Alberta Government from intending settlers in Alberta, chiefly from Middle Western States. Interest is displayed in all parts of the province. The Government is not encouraging wholesale immigration, but offers encouragement to those who have sufficient capital to establish themselves.

For the Land Seeker

Available Lands for Homesteads are Now Mapped Out

The total number of quarter-sections of Crown land still available in each township is shown on the 1921 edition of a land map of Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta, recently issued by the Department of the Interior, likewise the number of quarter-sections unoccupied and uncultivated lands held in private ownership and purchasable from the non-resident owner. This latter feature, showing at a glance what lands are for sale, should prove of great service to the land seeker. Supplementary to the map, the department has had compiled for each district, lists containing information as to the price asked for the land, terms of sale, nature of soil, acreage fit for cultivation, value of buildings and other matters helpful to the prospective purchaser. With such information in his possession the intending settler may then negotiate with the owner of the land.

Another important feature of the map is the railway belt information which has been shown in three different shades of color on each side of all railway lines, to signify land within 5, 10 or 15 miles of a railway. Among other details shown are the Dominion parks, the forest reserves, land districts and agencies, surveyed townships, and railway information to date. A copy of the map, also a list of the unoccupied lands for sale in any particular district may be obtained free of charge upon application to the Natural Resources Intelligence Branch, Department of the Interior, Ottawa.

Alberta Farmers Optimistic Over Crop

Southern Alberta farmers plan a heavy acreage of grain this season, as shown by the crop report compiled by the Lethbridge division of the Canadian Pacific Railway. Wheat alone, according to indications, will run to over a million acres. Great optimism prevails over the prospect in view of excellent moisture conditions.

Suction Dredge for Recovering Gold

It is expected that a powerful suction dredge will be in operation on the Upper Peace River at Hudson Hope next summer for the recovery of gold from the gravel and alluvial deposits along the river. The company, which is composed of Edmonton men, is now sending in material for the construction of the dredge.

Demonstrated Value Of Cow Testing

Dominion Dairy Commission Shows What May be Accomplished

The value of cow testing and recording as a guide in feeding for milk yield and in weeding out low producing cows from the herd is well illustrated by the officer in charge of the work under the Dominion Dairy Commission. In his report on the subject he gives instances of increase on annual revenue which illustrate what may be accomplished. In four years, he says, by adoption of the system, the Comox Association in British Columbia increased the average yield per cow by 1,400 lbs. milk and 70 lbs. fat. This was in the period from 1914 to 1918; and in the latter year the increase meant at least fifty dollars more per cow than was obtained in 1914. In a locality in Ontario where the system has been followed for a term of years, the production of one herd, including a number of grade cows, has been increased from 5,400 lbs. milk to nearly 12,000 lbs. per cow. The average of 57 cows finishing a full year's testing in 1920 was 8,366 lbs. milk and 313.4 lbs. fat. The statement is made that in Denmark twenty per cent. of the cows are tested; that in the United States there are 452 associations operating with an average of 425 cows tested in each association, or over 272,000 cows in all, and that in Canada, where the method pursued is on different lines, 3,400 farmers are so engaged. The numbers everywhere are increasing rapidly. Co-operation is recommended as the best method to follow in operating the system of cow testing, and the hiring of competent men to do the work.

Mostly Farmers

Many Soldier Settlers Were Farm Laborers Before Enlistment

Major Barnett, chairman of the Soldier Settlement Board, giving evidence before the pensions committee of the House, said that of soldier settlers on the land to whom assistance had been given, there would be only about five per cent. with no previous agricultural experience. Fifty per cent. however, were not on the land at the time of enlistment. In many cases men who were farm laborers before enlistment had taken up land for themselves. Payments in arrears at the end of the last fiscal year of the board were $1,202,000 out of $2,296,000 due. However, the board had also received over $1,000,000 in prepayments.

Total value of the loans actually made was $57,146,000.—The amount had been advanced by the finance department. The board had already repaid to the Finance Department $11,885,000.

The Farm Garden Is A Very Important Factor In Economy Of The Home

An Engineering Mystery

Iron Bar With Perforation Through Centre Stronger Than A Solid Bar

It seems impossible that an iron bar with a hole through the centre should be stronger than a solid bar of the same diameter, but this has actually been proved to be the case. A British firm has developed a very ingenious process of making what it calls a hollow cored bar with this increase of strength. The hollow core is really a small hole which extends from end to end of the bar. Obviously it would be a very costly business to bore a hole through the bar, and in consequence this firm has developed a clever way of making the bar hollow without drilling. The mass of metal from which the bar is drawn is drilled in the first case, and the hole is packed tight, with a special composition. The ends of the hole are subsequently sealed by a patented process of welding. When the piece of metal is rolled in the mill into a long bar the packing stretches with the metal and preserves the continuity of the hole. One of the most important applications of this hollow cored bar is for mining drills where the hole is used for a current of air or a jet of water to cool the cutting edge. Where water is used it converts the dust made by the tool into slush before it can rise and be breathed by the miner. Thanks to this invention it is probably that the liability of miners to tuberculosis trouble will be greatly minimized. Hollow cored bars are also being used for a great variety of purposes in motor car construction and elsewhere. Arrangements have recently been made for the production of these hollow bars on a much larger scale than formerly.

Alpine Club Meets at Banff

The annual summer camp of the Alpine Club of Canada will be held in the Palliser Pass in the Canadian Rocky Mountains, three days pack journey or about 60 miles from the railroad at Banff, from July 27th to August 15th. About two hundred members of the club from all over Canada and the United States are expected to meet at Banff. Several innovations in difficult mountain scaling will be introduced this summer, and the feasibility of scaling Mount Logan, the highest peak in North America, will be discussed and tentative arrangements made for the feat.

The importance of the farm garden cannot be too greatly stressed upon. There is altogether too large a percentage of farms in the province where no attempt is made to have a garden. It should be generally recognized that the cost of operating a farm home can be greatly reduced by growing as large a percentage as possible of the foodstuffs required in the home. A farm garden makes it much easier to supply a wholesome and diversified menu, and hence is an important factor in maintaining the health of the members of the home.

Some of the chief advantages of a good garden may be summarized as follows:—

It is an evidence of thrift.

It assists in reducing the cost of operating a home. It is a very expensive matter for a farmer to have to purchase vegetables.

It ensures the use of an abundance of green foods, and thus has a very direct bearing on the health of those depending upon it.

Many of the vegetables produced in the average garden may be preserved for winter use by canning, thus insuring a supply of healthful food throughout the year.

A well planned and cared-for garden is a thing of beauty, especially if it is sheltered by a thrifty windbreak and contains fruit and flowers as well as vegetables.

It is a very essential part of the farm lay-out. It increases one's pride in his farm. It makes the farm more self-supporting. It stops many of the avoidable leaks in the pocket-book. It lends the atmosphere of permanence to the farm home.

The farm garden brings up the whole matter of beautifying the farm home. While a productive garden can be grown on practically every farm, it is much easier to make it successful if it is surrounded by a shelter belt. The Dominion Horticulturist, after a visit to the west in 1921, stated that "The prairie will become a land of gardens as soon as it has become a land of hedges and shelter belts."

It is important to allocate enough land for the garden so that one half may be fallow and the other half in garden each year, a one acre in size, allowing one half for the garden should produce enough for an average family each year.

Not Exaggerated

Pitiable Conditions Among the Starving People of Russia

That the reports of the pitiable conditions among the starving people of the Volga provinces in Russia have not been exaggerated is evident from statements made in Toronto by Professor Atkinson of Melbourne, Australia, who recently visited these portions of Russia.

Professor Atkinson said: "You cannot emerge from such an absolute inferno of human agony and feel that you have any individual rights whatever in the face of this, the most appalling disaster that history has ever known."

Describing the look on a starving child's face as it reached out to get the bread, and was looking at it with the most dreadful look I ever saw in all my life. The whole tragedy of Russia was summed up in the expression of that child's face."

Speaking on the question of responsibility for these conditions, Professor Atkinson said: "It is no use blaming the Soviet or anybody else in Russia if you want to do anything from a humanitarian standpoint. The Soviet is doing its best to help the foreign organizations to deliver food and he could assure them that all the food got to the children—every bit of it."

Gold in Northland

Prospects for gold in the deltas and banks of the waterways of the Northland are good, according to Carl Laugen and his party of four who have prospected the western tributaries of Great Bear Lake and the streams flowing into the Liard, immediately adjacent to the Mackenzie River. They have taken up claims on the Nahanni. They claim to have washed an average of sixteen ounces a day for nearly a month.

Canadian National Livestock Improvement Train

The above photo was taken a few days ago at one of the points visited by this train. At all stops keen interest has been taken by men, women and children who have turned out in large numbers.

The tour was a pronounced success. Those co-operating in the undertaking included Canadian National Railways, Livestock Branch of Dominion Department of Agriculture, Manitoba Agricultural College, Breed Associations (cattle) for Manitoba, Winnipeg Livestock Exchange and Winnipeg Packing Companies. The railway equipment supplied and operated by the Canadian National Railways, included special lecture coaches, cars for the conveyance both of pure-bred bulls and of demonstration animals, and cars for livestock demonstration work.

Livestock Demonstrations—Demonstrations given as to the actual values of various classes of cattle and hogs to the stockyard.

Women's Meetings—One car was devoted to meetings for women. Motion pictures or bread making, canning, etc. Lectures and demonstrations.

Boys' and Girls' Car—One car was equipped for meetings with the boys and girls. Lectures and demonstrations, illustrated with pictures and lantern slides.

Men's Lecture Car—One car was provided for meetings of men on such topics as breeding, feeding and management of animals; the production of crops for feeding and market demands.

Manitoba-raised pure-bred bulls of various breeds were carried freight free from assembling points and offered for sale. Sales were made by representatives of the breeders. The train reached each stopping point early in the morning, and bulls were on sale all day. Every bull was tested for tuberculosis and no reactors were offered for sale. Only such bulls as were considered of suitable type were sent out. Every bull was sold as a breeder.

V.
Elba, Manitoba

June 21st, 19—

At the present moment I am sitting, in a green-and-red plush-covered easy (?) chair, in the parlour of "THE PALACE BOARDING-HOUSE Refreshments for Man and Beast at Reasonable Rates. Hot Meals and Beds. European Plan—You Pay for What You Eat. Proprietor, Mrs. REBECCA MILLS." I quote the sign-board.

At the opposite side of the room Mary is seated before one of those modern instruments of torture known as an American organ. From this she is extracting—no word but that one so suggestive of dentistry will describe the operation—companions to the most ragged of rag-time melodies which she is singing for the edification of Mrs. Mills' twin sons. The boys, who rejoice in the names of Reginald and Percival, are eight years old. They are red-headed, freckled little lumps, and they possess the anemic smile which is peculiar to twins who are so much alike that they cannot be told apart and which, I believe, is due to the fact that punishment is always meted out to the wrong boy. Mary has discovered that Percival is minus a front tooth, so she feels sure that she will make no mistake. But if I am any judge of the peculiar nature as it is exhibited in boys of eight, Reginald also will lack a tooth before long. Who could blame him? I, for one, have not forgotten how I used to

Nervous Breakdown

The extreme depression and discouragement which comes over one at times is the most alarming symptom of nervous exhaustion.

This letter is a message of hope to all who find themselves in this unfortunate condition.

Mrs. Geo. T. Tingley, Albert, N.B., writes:—

"For years I was in a very nervous, run-down condition, was much depressed in spirits and suffered a great deal at times. The least noise would irritate me and at times I felt as though I certainly would go crazy. I consulted different doctors to no effect.

"A friend advised the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food and I can truly testify today to the great benefits received. There was a marked change before I had finished the second box and when I had used a dozen boxes my nerves were thoroughly restored and I was entirely relieved of those terrible feelings. I used to drive. I shall ever be ready to testify to the benefits of this wonderful medicine, feeling sure that it will give to others the quick and permanent relief it has given me."

"So long, Mary."

Mary, we will miss you so!

So long, Mary.

How we hate to see you go!

We'll be longing for you, Mary.

While you roam.

So long, Mary.

Don't forget to come back home."

The incorrigible girl has just succeeded in convincing the boys that this class was written by a personal friend of hers, to be sung as a farewell when she left for England three years ago!

"Aw, Miss Mary, can't you stay here more'n one day?" says Percival coaxingly. "This town's a dead-end Goliath, but if you'd stay we could have a swell time. I wish you'd come fishin' with me an' Reg—we'd put the worms on the hook if you're scared! What's the use of goin' back to Winnipeg? There ain't no fun there—too many cops around to take a kid home if he just goes for a walk."

"Say, Miss Mary," broke in Reginald, "was you ever in the Police Station? Me an' Perc were wunst when he was in Winnipeg. We just went down the street a little ways an' long comes a cop an' says, 'Say, son, does your mother know you're out?' An' I says, 'No, does yours?' An' he just hauled and ast us where did we live and we says Elba, an' then he says, 'Well, wouldn't youse kids like to take a walk with me?' An' then we're right to the 'Plice Station, an' 'I'll rest my hat if them ain't the young divils a Mrs. Mills has been 'phoning about. Better have a good time when you're here, kids, because when your Ma gets you she'll be so darn glad that she'll well nigh lick the hides off of you."

"You bet she did, too," added Percival, with a reminiscent twinge.

Mary answered them, with deep regret, that she must go home as soon as I was called for, but she made them promise to visit her when next they went to Winnipeg. Poor Mrs. Arnold.

But to go back. Yesterday at noon, after three hours of uneventful travel through uninteresting country, Mary and I reached Elba. I do not blame Napoleon for leaving his Elba as soon as possible if it was at all like this Canadian namesake. In spite of my unromantic nature, I had pictured the scene of my labours as a cosy farmhouse, nestled among tree-clad hills, where I should enjoy the freedom of Canadian life coupled with the comfort and refinement of England. But the picture vanished, never to return in its full beauty, when I saw Elba.

Flat prairie as far as I could see in three directions, and in the fourth a few scattered sugar bushes, with the merciless noon-day sun searching out—as only the Canadian sun can—all the bareness and crudity of the little village that at first I scarcely noticed, so strong was the spell of the prairies upon me. . . . that is, Elba.

The Corporate Village of Elba consists of three grain elevators (why "elevators" I cannot tell, for they are merely storehouses for corn—grain, I should say—but their dominating height draws all eyes to them)—so there is probably some physiological reason for the name); one "General Store," with I shall describe later; two agencies for agricultural machinery; a blacksmith's shop; a bank no larger than a good-sized packing-case—in fact, Mary looked for the address tag; and two or three houses. The station is a superannuated goods-van, one end of which is fitted up as an office and made impressive by the telegraph instrument, a copy of the Homestead Regulations, and a safe, and in the other end the stationmaster lives.

"The carriage waits, my lady," said Mary as we stepped off the train; and then I saw, at the end of the platform furthest from the engine, a typical western conveyance—a two-seated light wagon to which was harnessed a pair of handsome but only half-broken horses. The driver did not seem to be at all disturbed by the way in which they reared and plunged, for he talked over his shoulder to the stationmaster most of the time while the train waited, only occasionally addressing an uncomplimentary but apparently soothing remark to his horses.

My heart sank as I thought of trusting my precious life—to say nothing of my camera—to the tender mercies of such a careless driver and his Wild West Show steeds, but I hope I showed no timidity as I asked him if he were from the Fiske farm.

"No," he replied; "I don't think that any of the Fiskes are in town today."

"That is strange!" said I. "I telegraphed them to meet me."

At this the stationmaster turned to me. "There is a telegram for Mrs. Fiske lying in the office," he volunteered—"it has been there since yesterday morning, and if it is yours they will not know that you are coming to-day." Then, seeing my look of dismay, he added, "Their man will be in with butter to-morrow, and when he comes I'll tell him that you are here. We have a boarding-house in Elba now, where you will be safe but uncomfortable, and I guess you can put up with it for one night."

I looked at Mary and she looked at me, and then we both laughed. The men smiled in sympathy, and a buldog that had been dozing on the platform awakened, and gazed at me with a condescending air that said, plainer than words, "I told you so." At last I realized that I was in the Canada of my dreams.

"Where is the boarding-house?" asked Mary. "Within walking distance, I presume?"

Without taking any notice of the reflection upon the size of Elba, the stationmaster picked up our bags and lifted them into the back of the wagon. "Livingstone, here, goes right past the house, and he can drive you over," he said.

"Livingstone" now awoke to a sense of his duty. "Yes, get right in. Sorry I'm not going Fiske's way, so that I could take you out."

Again I felt that England and the conventions were far away; but remembering old Jane's comforting proverb to the effect that you may as well be killed for a sheep as a lamb, and also realizing that there was really nothing else to do, I accepted the invitation and Mary and I "got right in."

Memorial Cross Issue Extended

Wives and Mothers of Deceased Soldiers to Receive Medal Regardless of Date of Death

The Memorial Cross which heretofore has been available only to the wives and mothers of soldiers whose deaths resulted from active service prior to November 11th, 1920, will now be issued in respect of any man who dies as the result of active service, regardless of the date of death. A militia order has just been issued to this effect as the result of representations from the Ontario Provincial Command, G.W.V.A., strongly supported by Capt. H. A. Chadwick of the Records Branch, Department of National Defence.

The issue of the Memorial Cross in the first instance was prompted by the desire of the nation to provide some tangible recognition of the sacrifice of mothers who gave their sons in the defence of the nation. It was also made available to the wives of married deceased soldiers, but the issue was contingent upon death having occurred within two years of the signing of the Armistice. The new regulation makes provision for the issue of the Cross to those eligible on account of deaths which have occurred since November 11, 1920, and which were attributable to war service, and for such deaths that may occur in future.

The authorities have no means of securing accurate information concerning post-war deaths so it is necessary for those concerned to make application to the department for the issue of the medal. In the cases of soldiers who married after enlistment, and whose deaths occurred prior to or after discharge, both the wife and the mother are eligible to receive the Memorial Cross. G.W.V.A. branches will in future, as in the past, provide every assistance necessary, in this and other respects, to the relatives of deceased soldiers.

The Values of Colors

Hints for Selecting Wallpapers for Every Room

In choosing wallpapers and hangings it is useful to know the value of different colors.

Yellow, for instance, enlarges things. A room papered in yellow looks larger than it really is. It gives a glint of sunlight to a dark room.

Blue is a color which contracts a room. Some shades are rather cold. Red gives a feeling of richness. It shows the positive side of an apartment.

Pink allied to white paint is an excellent selection for a bedroom.

Brown is good for a living-room.

Grey is an unpretentious color which harmonizes beautifully with almost any other hue—mulberry, peacock blue or primrose.

We know of no remedy that will do so much to make the heart regular, strengthen and vigor, regulate its beat and restore it to a healthy normal condition as will

Important Changes In Taxation Announced In Budget Speech

Ottawa.—Not a seat was vacant in the House when Hon. W. S. Fielding arose to present the first budget of the present administration, but his sixteenth as a Minister of Finance. When Mr. Fielding last made a budget statement, 11 years ago, his story was one of a bounding prosperity. Today (as an aftermath of war), it was because of the gravity of the financial situation that he stressed the necessity of making his budget balance. He had reductions to announce in customs duties, but he had likewise some sweeping increases in taxation. He pleaded for the "deep and earnest need" of Economy; he urged that Members of Parliament and the people alike should pass a self-denying ordinance. "I would not, however," Mr. Fielding hastened to add, "have anyone draw the impression that I take a gloomy view of the situation. There is, happily, a brighter side."

For the financial year 1922-23, the Finance Minister summarized the financial situation in this wise:

Estimated revenue, $332,629,000; estimated expenditure, $466,983,359. The following gives the budget in brief:

Tariff reduction combined with increases in special taxes:

British preference increased on many items.

Few reductions on imports from United States.

Acts of last session regarding consular certificates, valuation for duties, and limiting depreciation on foreign exchange to 50 per cent., are all repealed.

Goods Marking Act repealed, but marking made permissive at option of Government.

Sales tax increased by 50 per cent.

Tax of 1 per cent. imposed on bank circulation, in addition to income tax.

Five per cent. tax on premiums paid to unlicensed insurance companies.

Tax on cheques raised to 2 cents on each $50.

Tax on telegrams raised to 5 cents.

Taxes on tobacco cigars and cigarettes revised so as to relieve cheaper brands and increased rates on more expensive.

Alc, beer, porter, etc., to pay tax of 15c per gallon.

Soft drinks taxed 10c a gallon.

Additional tax of 5 per cent. on automobiles up to $1,200 in value; above that, 10 per cent.

Confectionary to pay tax of five per cent.

Tax reduced on matches in small boxes.

Customs rates on agricultural implements reduced by from 2½ to 5 per cent.

Increase in British preference on sugar.

Duties on cocoa and chocolate reduced.

Reduction of 2½ per cent. in duties on woollen clothing.

Collars and cuffs, reduction of 5 per cent.

Boots and shoes, duty reduced 2½ per cent.

Reduction in duty on gasoline for fishing vessels, and on other fishermen's supplies.

Reduction of 2½ per cent. in British preference rates on cotton yarns and cotton fabrics, also on knitting goods, linen, or cotton clothing.

British "movie" films to come in at lower rate.

Machinery for saw mills reduced under the general tariff.

Excise tax of 49 cents imposed on beet sugar.

Paris of pumps and iron tubing come in at reduced duties for mining industry.

Iron tubing and tools reduced for plumbing.

Window shades reduced 2½ per cent. if British.

Import of many birds added to prohibited list.

Drawback schedule revised.

Has Faith in Canada

Duke of Devonshire is Complimentary to People of Dominion

London.—The Canadian Club of Great Britain on Empire Day entertained the Duke of Devonshire, ex-Governor-General of Canada, at a luncheon which was attended by a good many Canadians and ex-Canadians now residing or visiting in London. There were present also Ambassador Harvey of the United States; Sir Hamar Greenwood, Secretary for Ireland; Hon. E. Shortt, Home Secretary; and Col. L. C. Amery, Parliamentary Secretary for the Board of Admiralty.

Sir George Brown presided in the absence of Hon. P. C. Larkin, who is in Geneva.

Responding to the toast in his honor, the Duke said that even the ten months that had passed since he resumed his residence in England had not robbed him of the optimism acquired in Canada. It was easy enough to talk about Canada's natural resources but the marvellous development of the country was equally due to the character of the people and its institutions.

Temperance and Morals

Liquor Question Will Be Issue in Quebec Elections

Montreal.—"There will certainly be elections. I cannot say just when, I hope they will come soon, but I certainly don't think they will be held either in June or July."

This was the feature of the speech made by Hon. J. L. Perron Provincial Minister of Roads, addressing the members of L'Association de la Parole Libérale here. He added:

"Whether the sale of liquor in this province is to continue under Government control or go back to individual vendors as under the old license system, is in my opinion the fundamental question and it is on this question first and foremost that elections will be held in this province."

M. Perron declared that alcohol in North America was a necessity.

"We must have it, for if we did not there would be worse things. The revenue part, after all, is only a secondary matter. It is a question of temperance and morals."

Serious Position Of British Aviation

France Will Have 226 Squadrons Against Britain's 12

London.—Major W. T. Blake, of the Royal Air Force, and Captain Norman MacMillan, who on the death of Sir Ross Smith took over the latter's plan to fly around the world, were entertained at luncheon in London by the Daily News. Lord Montagu, of Beauchamp, presiding, it was announced that a private individual was financing the entire expedition. Lord Montagu speaking of the serious position of British aviation said the end of 1922 would find the French with 226 air squadrons compared with Great Britain's 12.

English Meat Traders Ask Embargo Removal

Say Canadian Cattle Only Remedy for Livestock Shortage

London.—"We are greatly concerned over the big shortage of livestock in the country and the high price of English meat. The only remedy is re-introduction of Canadian cattle." Thus begins the anti-embargo resolution of the National Federation of Meat Traders. The Daily Express, in commenting on the embargo controversy, supposes Sir Arthur Griffith-Boscawen and other ministers prefer home-killed meat themselves, so why imagine that other people prefer the frozen variety.

Ottawa.—Practically without discussion the House voted $1,199,000 for the maintenance of fisheries; $114,810 for steamboat inspection; $262,000 for meteorological service; and $90,000 for the Sorrel shipyard.

Saskatchewan Musical Festival

Splendor of Massed Choral Singing Subject of Comment

Regina.—Not less than 3,500 people gathered at the Stadium on Wednesday evening and in point of attendance the day may be said to have been a complete success in spite of the holiday rather than because of it. For trains both into Regina and out carried capacity crowds, and though hundreds sought rural refuge from paved streets, hundreds of others came in to attend the festival—a proportion of them to take part.

The evening programme was given over to the final performances of Class A brass bands, choral societies and military bands. This was followed by the performance by the massed choral societies—an aggregation of something like 1,000 singers—of Rachmaninoff's "Cherubim Song" under the baton of Francis Stevenson, conductor of the Orpheus Choral Society of Saskatoon.

Saskatoon carried off the most coveted honors of the 1922 musical festival, when the Orpheus Society won the shield in the choral society contest with 174 points. The Moose Jaw Choral Society, conducted by W. H. Maxwell, came second with 170. The Regina Choral Society, conducted by F. Laubach, was given third place with 163 points; and Prince Albert Choral Society, conducted by Madame J. E. Morrier, was fourth, with 160½ points.

The splendor of the massed choral singing can best be imagined from the statement of T. Tertius Noble, who has shown no inclination to be over-lyrical of praise, but who said of this culminating production, "This is a festival chorus most undoubtedly and it is made up of magnificent material."

The United States is the world's largest consumer of crude cocoa.

TIRED AND RUN DOWN

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Helped Where Other Medicines Failed

Vancouver, B. C.—"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound because I was tired and run down. I had headaches and no appetite and was troubled for two years with sleeplessness. I tried many medicines but nothing did me any real good. While I was living in Washington I was recommended by a friend to take the Vegetable Compound. I am stronger and feel fine since then and am able to do my housework. I am willing for you to use these facts as a testimonial." Mrs. J. C. GILBERT, 771 Hornby St., Vancouver, British Columbia.

Many women keep about their work when it is a great effort because the work must be done. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has brought relief to thousands of tired housewives by removing the troubles which cause annoying symptoms.

If you are suffering from nervousness, headache and backache, pains in right or left side, tired and run-down feelings, take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Just bear in mind this medicine has been used by women for nearly fifty years. That is a long record of service, and stands upon the foundation of merit.

Railroad Freight Rates In United States Are Reduced Ten Per Cent.

Washington.—Railroad freight rates in the United States will be reduced on July 1 by amounts equal to 10 per cent. of their present levels, under a decision of the inter-state commerce commission.

Practically all classes and commodities of traffic are affected by the decision which marked the conclusion of the investigation begun last autumn by the commission, on its own initiative into the reasonableness of existing freight levels.

The cut in freight rates was fixed by the commission at 14 per cent. in eastern territory; 13½ per cent. in western territory, and 12½ per cent. in the southern and mountain Pacific territories.

The commission, in ordering the decreases—which are on a horizontal basis—held that the nation's railroads are entitled to earn 5½ per cent. on the value of their property rather than the approximate six per cent. fixed as a reasonable return in the Transportation Act of 1921.

Agricultural products in all sections of the country outside of New England, livestock and western grain and grain products are the chief commodities excluded from the reduction, these comprising the freight classifications upon which reductions have been recently put into effect.

Passenger charges and Pullman fares also are unchanged by today's decision.

Though a divergent view within the commission was indicated by several supplemental concurring or dissenting opinions, the full weight of the commission appeared to be thrown behind the statement made in majority and controlling opinion that a general reduction in the rate level as substantial as the conditions of the carriers will permit will tend to stabilize the conditions under which commerce and industry are carried on, consequently fuller assurance to carriers of realizing a fair return.

The great reductions in freight rates are expected to have an important bearing on importations from Canada and elsewhere. The lowering of freights, as viewed here, will to some extent increase imports from Canada, which have had to encounter not only tariff duties but such high freight charges as to greatly restrict markets.

Inefficient Sea Power

London Telegraph Deplores Lack of Dominion Participation in Naval Matters

London.—The Daily Telegraph, in an editorial dealing with the Empire's naval position, asks what has happened regarding dominion participation in pursuance of the co-operation policies between Britain and the dominions as outlined at the meeting of premiers.

Supplying the answer, it says: "Nothing, and less than nothing." The Telegraph remarks that the baby navies of Australia and Canada will, in a few months, to all intents and purposes, cease to exist.

The newspaper continues:

"In the view of a legitimate cry for economy in this country our squadrons are being further cut down in European waters. The time is not far distant when we shall be an inefficient power by sea and the Washington standard will seemingly be a mere scrap of paper. Is that a small matter to Canada looking out over the Atlantic and the Pacific and does it suggest no reflection to Australia, New Zealand and South Africa? By joint effort they could at least see that the Washington standard accepted by Great Britain and the dominions is maintained."

Fatal Canoe Accident

Two Men Drown When Canoe Overturns in Rapids

Winnipeg.—Overturning of a canoe containing three members of the forestry service, on Winnipeg River, above Manitoba Rapids, resulted in the drowning of Fred French, a first year student in the forestry school, University of Toronto, and Albert Hale, of Winnipeg, a cook, according to word received here.

Another university student, N. M. Kensis, succeeded in reaching shore after making a valiant effort to rescue French. He held him until he realized they both would be drawn over the rapids, when he was forced to relinquish his hold. French and Hale were swept over the rapids.

Post Office Will Issue Licenses

Ottawa.—After June 1, radio receiving licenses will be issued through the post office department of larger cities as well as through the radio branch of the naval service department. Hitherto all licenses were issued through the latter department. An earlier report that the issuing of the licenses will be turned over to the postal department is incorrect. The charge is $1 annually.

German War Material Destroyed

Berlin.—Up to March 1, Germany had destroyed 5,555,000 rifles and carbines, 164,000 machine guns, 35,700,000 loaded shells and mines, 14,800,000 grenades, 43,353 airplanes and 24,045 airplane engines, according to official figures.

Many Soldiers Have Abandoned Farms

Hon. Charles Stewart Says Number Totals Over Two Thousand

Ottawa.—Hon. Charles Stewart, Minister of Immigration, stated in the House of Commons that there had been 2,352 abandonments of farms by soldier settlers.

The total amount of public monies invested in the abandoned farms was $9,885,535. The amount invested in lands and buildings was $1,651,257. The return received was $1,852,334. The amount invested in stock and equipment was $539,853, and the return received from the sale of this stock and equipment $376,466.

PAINFUL ACCIDENT

H. P. Botting, who resides a few miles north of town, met with a very painful and what might have been a serious accident last Thursday when a shot gun he was using exploded. The end of the barrel became plugged with dirt and when he fired the gun it exploded at the breech, parts of the barrel penetrating his arm in several places. He was taken to the Consort Hospital and although suffering from the loss of blood and the wounds he is now doing nicely.

The Financial year of the Cooperative Church closed on April 30 and on Tuesday evening of last week a report of the work was made to the Board. Some of the details are as follows: Total amount raised for all purposes $16,96; a flourishing Sunday School with an average attendance of 24 and an enrollment of 35, a church free of debt, and a new Parsonage with only $300. indebtedness. During the winter months 34 Lantern Lectures were given on the Mission and the proceeds above expenses were applied on Salary. The Mission Band attendance has increased steadily and new interest has developed in every branch of activity. These are only a few of the details gleaned from the Annual Statement now in press.

THE CHURCH &amp; ITS WORK

By the
Rev. W. S. WICKENDEN.

WHITSUNDAY

On Sunday next June 4 the Church commemorates the Feast of Pentecost on which day the Lord fulfilled His promise to His followers by sending forth to them the Holy Spirit.

From the beginning the Christian Church has celebrated Whitsunday; it may with truth be called "The Birthday of the Church."

The Holy Spirit is the Lord and Giver of Life. On Him we depend for the new birth, on Him we depend for guidance, and on Him we depend for strength to persevere. The Bible tells us, "Now if any man have not the Spirit of Christ he is none of His."

May God grant us true repentance and His Holy Spirit to amend our lives according to His Holy Word.

WORLD HAPPENINGS BRIEFLY TOLD

Thomas Draper, Petrolia, Ont., has leased 1,920 acres of tar sand property in Alberta from the Federal Government.

The Polish Diet has enacted a law requiring an annual vacation of two weeks with pay for all industrial workers.

The police commission has refused to revoke the order for the strict enforcement of the Lord's Day Act in Victoria.

A special despatch from Moscow announces the appointment of Leonik Krassin, Russian Bolshevik representative in London, as Soviet ambassador to Germany.

The ambassadors council has ordered the Bulgarian Government to proceed immediately with the disarmament of the Wrangel troops on Bulgarian territory and the dissolution of their military organizations.

Italy has agreed to restore to Germany for 800,000 lire all German property in Italy, seized during the war except some which has already been converted for public utility, says a despatch to the London Times from Rome.

The first Jewish municipal bond issue in history, amounting to £80,000, has been authorized by the Palestine Government for the township of Tel-Aviv, the self-contained Jewish municipality near Jaffa. The obligations are secured by taxation, the bonds being issued at 6 per cent., repayable in 20 years.

Quick Work in Germany

Tree Being Transformed Into Newspaper Within a Single Day

Trees on which birds warbled their morning songs are turned into newspaper and sold at midday editions on the same day in certain towns of the Harz district, says the Papierfabrikant, the leading German papermakers' organ.

The exact time taken in the process is 3 hours 25 minutes. The trees were felled at 7.35 a.m.; pulped and turned into paper by 9.39, rushed in a motor truck two and one-half miles to the printing office and at 11 o'clock newspaper boys were crying the local sheet off the streets.

CHILDHOOD INDIGESTION

Nothing is more common in childhood than indigestion. Nothing is more dangerous to proper growth, more weakening to the constitution or more likely to pave the way to dangerous disease. Fully nine-tenths of all the minor ills of childhood have their root in indigestion. There is no medicine for little ones to equal Baby's Own Tablets in relieving this trouble. They have proved of benefit in thousands of homes. Concerning them Mrs. Jos. Lunette, Immaculate Conception, Que., writes: "My baby was a great sufferer from indigestion, but the Tablets soon set her right and now I would not be without them." Baby's Own Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Miller's Worm Powders are the medicine for children who are found suffering from the ravages of worms. They immediately alter the stomachic conditions under which the worms subsist and drive them from the system, and, at the same time, they are tonic in their effect upon the digestive organs, restoring them to healthful operation and ensuring immunity from further disorders from such a cause.

As a vermicide an excellent preparation is Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator. It has saved the lives of countless children.

Eastern Syndicate Leases Oil Lands Twenty-five hundred acres of land at Pouce Coupe have been secured under oil leases by an eastern syndicate, incorporated under the laws of Quebec. It is said that the syndicate is a close corporation, and that extensive development work will be undertaken during the coming season.

Feathers, Fringe and a Bag to Match Milady's Chapeau!

Fringe! There is nothing new about fringes. It has been used in every way and in every place under the sartorial sun, but so firm a place has it won in our affections that we must have at least a bit of it on some garment in our wardrobe. On the overblouse of spring it lends an attractive finish to the bottom, as well as to the sleeves. It gives a suggestion of grace to whatever it embellishes.

And feathers! As elaboration their use dates back no further than the Garden of Eden, but Milady 1922 affects them as often as she possibly can and loves them just as dearly as did Eve.

Neither is there anything particularly novel in the matching of the hat and the bag, but it is a pleasing fancy and one which is revived annually when March goes out like a lamb.

MISS MARQUERITE K. O'LEARY, of Reading, Pa., who says she has gained eight pounds and can hardly find words to express her praise for Tania for the good the medicine did her.

"I am so happy over what Tania has done for me I can hardly find words to express my praise," said Miss Marquerite K. O'Leary, who lives with her parents at 1223 Chestnut St., Reading, Pa. "I wasn't exactly what would be called sick, but for a year I had been all run down and sometimes felt so weak and miserable I could hardly hold up my head. I was so nervous the telephone bell or a door closing would startle me so I would tremble like a leaf."

"I needed something to build me up and give me strength and energy, and that is exactly what Tania did. It gave me a fine appetite and improved my digestion. I gained eight pounds, the color came back to my face, my nerves became normal and I soon felt as well as I ever did in my life. It is simply wonderful that medicine could make such a big change in any one. My friends and neighbors are surprised when they see me now, and no wonder, for I look like a different person. Tania is grand and I never intend to miss a chance to say a good word about it."

Tania is sold by all good druggists.

Soldier Settlers Increase Acreage
Last year's crop acreage put in by soldier settlers under the Soldier Settlement Board will be increased this year by more than 40,000 acres, according to the District Superintendent of the Board. The acreage tilled last year by soldier settlers was 120,000 acres, and this year it is expected to exceed 160,000 acres.

A Few of the World's Lofty Peaks

Some of Nature's Most Gigantic Works Along Line of C.P.R.

The Canadian Pacific Rockies comprise some of Nature's most gigantic works. This can better be visualized when it is said that in the various mountain ranges that make up the Canadian Pacific Rockies, there are, according to Government measurement, no less than 593 mountain peaks over 5,000 feet in height above sea level. The Government list include only those peaks which bear names, and it does not profess to include the innumerable mountains that have not been named or measured. Of those listed there are 512 over 7,000 feet, 405 over 8,000 feet, 291 over 9,000 feet, 147 over 10,000 feet, 44 over 11,000 feet, 3 over 12,000 feet and 1 over 13,000 feet.

A great many of these majestic peaks are visible from the train, while others may be explored at leisure during the stay at the many beautiful resorts such as Banff, Lake Louise and Glacier.

Low summer tourist tickets are on sale daily to Vancouver, Victoria and other Pacific Coast points, which allow stop-over at any or all of the mountain resorts.

The trip through the Canadian Pacific Rockies to the Pacific Coast ranks among the finest in the world, with nature at her best during the summer months.

Four trans-continental trains each way daily will be operated by the Canadian Pacific Railway this summer through the Rockies, each equipped with open top observation cars. This service will include Canada's finest and fastest trans-continental train "The Trans-Canada Limited."

In certain parts of Russia the mail is carried by buffaloes. This animal is picked for the service because of his very flat feet, which enables him to travel where horses would sink.

AMERICAN COMMANDER HONORS CANADA'S DEAD

ON the occasion of his recent visit to Montreal to receive a degree from McGill University, General John J. Pershing, Commander-in-Chief of the United States Army, paid graceful tribute to Canada's soldiers who gave their lives in the Great War. At the end of the day, as he went to his private car in the Windsor Street C.P.R. Station, General Pershing took occasion to pay a visit to the bronze group erected to the memory of eleven hundred C.P.R. employees who died in the service of King and country.

At a Canadian Club luncheon during the afternoon, General Pershing had said—

"I think no army that served in the world war suffered more than the Canadians; none were more gallant; none came home with greater laurels than those American representatives from north of the 49th parallel. I do not wish to draw any comparisons, but out of those 450,000 Canadians who went overseas to fight for liberty and justice about half were casualties. No army has a better record than that, and it is something of which Canadians and Americans are justly proud—for we are all Americans in a broad sense."

As the general approached the statue he stood to attention and saluted, and later on, with the greatest of good nature, agreed to pose in front of it for the benefit of the press photographers. General Pershing is accompanied by Colonel J. T. Lorie (right), and Major Marshall, his aide-de-camp.

Railway News

Montreal.—Promotions and changes have just been announced in the staffs of the Canadian Pacific Telegraphs, effective May 1st, 1922.

W. J. Camp, Assistant Manager of Telegraphs for Eastern Lines, is transferred to the retired list, and is one of the oldest employees of the Canadian Pacific Telegraphs, having joined the service thirty-one years ago, a few months before the opening of the Telegraphs for public service. He is a native of Montreal.

W. D. Neil, Superintendent of the Ontario Division, is promoted to the position of Assistant Manager, Eastern Lines, succeeding W. J. Camp. Born in Ontario in 1887, Mr. Neil entered the service in 1905, as operator, and he has had experience at Calgary, Edmonton, Winnipeg, and other important points in the West. He was transferred from the West to the position of Traffic Superintendent at Montreal in March, 1915. In June, 1916, he became Traffic Superintendent of the Eastern Lines, with headquarters in Montreal. In December, 1918, he was transferred to the Ontario Division.

W. M. Thompson, at present Superintendent of the Eastern Division, with headquarters at Montreal, is transferred to Toronto, succeeding Mr. Neil. Mr. Thompson was born in England. He entered the Canadian Pacific service in 1905 as operator, and he has passed through the different positions gaining wide experience as chief operator. Later he was agent at Winnipeg, and he was transferred from Winnipeg in 1915 to be chief operator in Montreal. He was appointed Superintendent of Traffic in 1916 and promoted to the position of Superintendent of the Eastern Division, with headquarters in Montreal in 1918.

J. Mitchell succeeds Mr. Thompson as Superintendent of Telegraphs, Eastern Lines, with headquarters at Montreal. He entered the Canadian Pacific Telegraphs service in 1886 as operator, and has passed through different positions to Chief Operator in Montreal. Later he was made Inspector of Telegraphs, and in 1918 he was appointed Superintendent of Traffic for Eastern Lines. From the latter post he goes to his new position.

Montreal.—G. G. McKay is appointed General Agent, Passenger Department for Canadian Pacific Rail and Ocean Traffic at Detroit, with office at 1239 Griswold Street. Mr. McKay entered the service of the Canadian Pacific Railway as ticket clerk in Detroit on June 1st, 1906. Promotions following were: February, 1907, ticket agent; Detroit; October, 1911, City Passenger Agent, Chicago; May, 1912, City Ticket Agent, Chicago; February, 1916, City Passenger Agent, Chicago; July, 1916, City Passenger Agent, Detroit; June, 1920, Assistant General Agent, Chicago; November, 1920, General Agent, Canadian Pacific Steamships, Detroit; April, 1921, General Agent, C. P. R., Detroit. From the latter post he takes his new appointment as Rail and Ocean Traffic General Agent, Passenger Department, Detroit.

Montreal.—W. McIlroy is appointed General Agent of the Canadian Pacific Railway with office at 605 South Spring Street, Los Angeles, California. He joined the C. P. R. service on May 31st, 1891, as a telegraph messenger at St. Thomas, Ontario. Promotions following were: June, 1892, clerk in the Passenger Department, Galt; July, 1894, telegraph operator and clerk at Galt; February, 1899, agent at Brantford. Subsequently Mr. McIlroy was agent at St. Thomas, Galt and Peterborough. On October 14th, 1912, he became city ticket and passenger agent at Hamilton; May, 1915, city passenger agent, Toronto; June, 1916, chief clerk, Toronto; June, 1920, General Agent, Passenger Department, Detroit. From Detroit he goes to Los Angeles.

Winnipeg.—Beginning early in May the Canadian Pacific Railway operates through the Province of Manitoba a stock improvement train under the direction of the Department of Agriculture of the province. This train is donated by the railway company to the department in the interest of the advancement of live stock raising and is accompanied by an officer of the company in addition to the lecturers and others sent by the government. The train is a most elaborate one for the purpose and consists of the following cars in addition to ten freight cars of special type for handling live stock: Five special coaches for lecturers, moving pictures; a specially fitted refrigerator car will be used for displaying dressed beef, beef, bacon and other produce. This train is run as a special through the province.
